

We are proud to inform all our partners and customers, that MEGH received the prize "SUPPLIER REFERENCE ARTECOLA 2009".

The award was given to suppliers who possessed the best performance in the provision of 2009.

The event "Artecola Trust Meeting" took place in Novo Hamburgo - RS on november 29th, 2010, where our employee Mr. Wilson Lazaro, representing our company, received the trophy "Reference Supplier 2009"

Our company was among the ten suppliers honored for presenting the results of IQF (Quality Supply Index) within the standards considered by the customer.

The event brought together suppliers and employees Artecola, and had its opening carried out by Artecola's director president Mr. Eduardo Kunst and the logistic and supply manager Mr. Anderson Ramalho.

We see this award as further recognition that we are really working to meet the needs of our customers.

Since 1987, working in technology development with quality, MEGH company has been seeking the constant development of our processes, products and also the employees who helped build our company.

That's because we know that hard accomplishing our mission, we also help in the development of our market.

When choosing MEGH as partner you are sure to be buying products from a company really committed to its customers, which aims to be recognized for excellence in marketing quality products.